Arrival of the "Eliza Anderson."

The U. S. Overland Mail at Olympia.

Seven Days' Later News.

The steamer Eliza Anderson arrived from Olympia yesterday morning, bringing later news from all parts of the world, via Overland Mail from Sacramento. The news is to the 15th Sept., seven days' later than that brought by the Cortes.

California.

Manuel Herman was murdered on his ranch near Stockton, by some ruffians, who robbed the house and then set fire to it. Herman was 32 years of age.

Frank Anderson, a well-known character of Nevada, was murdered, Sept. 10th, by some unknown villains on the road between Nevada and Virginia City.

David Scannell, of Broderick Engine Company No. 1, has received the nomination for chief engineer, and John Corson of Pennsylvania Engine Company No. 12, for assistant engineer of the San Francisco Fire Department.

On the 10th Sept., a camphene lamp burst in the mill ranch of a Mr. Ryan, on the Brannan street road, San Francisco, and resulted in the destruction of the buildings, and the burning to death of Mrs. Ryan and her infant. Mr. R. was endeavoring to save his wife and child, was badly burned.

Sparry's clock store, in Tucker's new Academy of Music, San Francisco, was destroyed by fire on the 11th ult.

The trial of Dr. W. H. Stone, for the murder of Senator Bell, at Sacramento, last Spring, resulted in a verdict of acquittal.

The States.

By the arrival of the Pony Express, the San Francisco Bulletin has Eastern papers to the 31st of August.

Col. Yancey, of Alabama, a disunionist, caned Col. Leibels, the editor of the Confederation, on the 28th of August. Leibels closed with his antagonist, and both were somewhat injured.

The abolitionists have made the following nominations: For President—Gerrit Smith, of New York; for Vice President—Samuel Mc Farland, of Pennsylvania; for Governor of New York State—William Goodell, of New York city; for Lieutenant Governor—Sydney A. Beers, of Brooklyn.

Douglas is stumping the various States, trying to talk himself into the presidential chair.

The New Orleans Picayune says: The Northern Texas papers speak of a bloody fight in the Choctaw nation, between the abolition and slaveholding parties, in which over 100 were killed. The story is doubted.

Edward Flynn, a member of the fire department, died at the hospital New York, (August 27), from injuries received at a firemen's fight.

Capt. Ogden, of the Navy, died in New York, on August 25th.

The Texas people are still agitated by reports that the towns are to be burned by the abolitionists, and executions of suspected parties take place almost daily.

A minister of the Gospel, in the course of a sermon recently preached at High Bridge, N. Y., remarked that there was a great deal said on the subject of slavery; and although he did not intend to discuss it then, yet he would say that he had rather be a Christian slave in the South than a free servant of the devil in the North.

The Republicans of New York have placed William C. Bryant, the poet, at the head of their electoral ticket.

George Copway, the civilized Indian, made a Douglas speech in New York, last week.

The New Haven, Conn., Journal says: The "mysterious American bark," Charles B. Truitt, which lay off Queenstown, Ireland, five or six months, with arms, has now discharged her cargo of 1,115 cases of Colt's rifles into the steamer Queen of England, fitting out at Liverpool for Garibaldi. The rifles were valued at $20,000, and were shipped by Major Bartly, of this State.

Dr. Head, and Charles Head, his son, were shot and killed at Shreveport, La., on the 10th August, by Thomas Adams, with whom they had an old feud.

Walker, the filibuster, has landed in Honduras, and has taken the town and fort of Truxillo. The fort was attacked on the morning of the 6th instant, at daylight. Three of Gen. Walker's men were slightly wounded. Fifteen of the enemy were reported killed and a number wounded. The advance guard of the expedition encountered a picket of the enemy about two miles from the fort, and drove them in, with the loss of several killed. The main body rapidly followed up this advantage, and after half an hour's hard fighting drove the enemy from the fort. The Honduran forces were reported by the citizens to have amounted to 400 men. Walker took prisoners the Collector of the Port and a Lieutenant, but afterwards released them. He also took 10 cannon—among them one twenty-four pounder and a brass twelve-pounder, which commands the Pass; 125 stand of arms, 1,800 pounds of powder, and a large quantity of munitions, including clothing, provisions, etc. Walker feels confident of being able to hold Truxillo for the next four months against any force that can be brought against him. He is assisted by Gen. Cabanas, who is opposed to the present President, Gen. Guardiola. The latter has applied to Gen. Carrera, Dictator of Guatemala, for assistance, which has been refused. A large number of the natives are joining Walker's standard.

Walker has issued a proclamation to the people of Honduras, in which he avows that he does not make war against the people of Honduras, but against a government which stands in the way of the interest of all Central America.

Europe.

Intelligence has been received from Europe to the 17th August.

Affairs in Sicily.

The Neapolitan Parliamentary elections commenced on the 14th. Refugees were preferred by the electors, who openly declared for the annexation of Naples to Piedmont. The papers publish despatches announcing the unopposed disembarkation of Garibaldi, near Regio, on the night of the 10th August. The same despatch reports the evacuation of Sicily by the Neapolitans. Both statements are doubtful.

It is believed that Garibaldi intends to attack Austria, not on the Venetian, but on the Croatian coast, by attempting a disembarkation. The Austrian authorities believed that he will first endeavor to provoke revolution in Croatia and Hungary before proceeding to Venetia. All the coasts were watched by the Imperial cruisers. A Paris correspondent of the New York Times says Austria has now 250,000 men in Venetia. The same letter says the Neapolitan Government has decided to postpone the Parliamentary election indefinitely. This step, which is equivalent in the eyes of the Neapolitans, to abrogation of the new Constitution, will produce a great fermentation, and will only hasten the crisis which the king wished to avoid.

A Naples telegram states that the Garibaldians attempted to land and were repulsed. Only 200 succeeded in landing, and they were pursued into the interior.

Political interests prevail in Paris on the Sicilian and Italian questions.

Garibaldi was expected to attack Venice.

Austria will maintain the conflict alone against all Italy. Prussia will remain neutral while other powers do not interfere.

The material at the Austrian arsenal at Venice was being transferred to Polo. The steamer Veloce had entered Castellamare at midnight on the 14th, and fired several canon shots. Minerva [?] returned without producing any result.

LONDON, August 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says that the Pope has written a very melancholy letter to the Cardinal of France. He looks upon all as lost, and although convinced that he will die by the bullet of an assassin, he declares that he will quit Rome under no consideration and for no price.

The hay crop, in many districts of England, was a total failure, owing to the unseasonable weather.

Austria was assuming a threatening attitude, and there were rumors of an approaching manifesto on the Emperor's birthday, declaring a release from the Villafranca treaty, and uttering threats against Piedmont. Austria had already demanded an explanation from Piedmont, concerning Garibaldi's letter to Victor Emmanuel, pronouncing a projected attack on Venetia.

There was great activity manifested in the Austro marine department.

Additional failures have occurred in the English leather trade. The announcement includes Messrs. Pontefract, boot makers, of Northampton, for £200,000, and Edmund Baidot, leather factor, of London, for £40,000. John Dales, woolen manufacturer, had also failed for a large amount. There were other failures for smaller sums.

Advices from Damascus of the 15th July, state that Fuad Pasha had surrounded Lebanon with troops, and threatened with the sword the Druses and Sheiks if they did not surrender in two days. Twenty Sheiks had already been taken, and nearly eight hundred other important arrests made. A thousand camels, loaded with plundered property, had also been recovered. The Sultan was about to address a gratifying letter to Queen Victoria and the Emperor Napoleon, on the subject of Syrian affairs, in which he would express desire to have the sole punishment of the offenders.

GENOA, August 15.—The Grand Duchess Anne, of Russia, sister of King Leopold, died to-day at Berne.

John Wild & Sons, manufacturers of Macclesfield, Eng., have failed for £150,000, and Secross, their London agent, for £70,000.

300,000 reals of the Morocco indemnity had arrived at Madrid.

A resolution for raising £300,000 for India was agreed to in the House of Commons.

The English papers state that during the stay of the American ship Connecticut, at Plymouth, on the way to China, the crew charged the captain and officers with most inhuman treatment.

A man named William Youngman, a resident of Walworth, recently murdered his mother, two brothers, and a young female named Streeter, to whom he was engaged to be married.

The Liverpool papers announce the death of Mrs. Henry J. Wallack, formerly Miss Turpin, a popular actress and vocalist.

Alfred Dickens, a brother of Charles Dickens, recently died at Manchester. He was by profession a civil engineer.

The Rev. James Martineau, of London, has given up his contemplated visit to the United States.

Limerick has contributed £6,407 11s. 2d. to the Pope's fund.

Later from Italy.

By the arrival of the Southampton at New York, the San Francisco Alta has European dates to the 22nd August, from which we take the following summary:

Fifteen hundred Garibaldians had disembarked in Calabria, and were joined by 2,000 insurgents, with whom they retired to the mountains.

Preparations were continued for the defense of Naples.

Colonel Colling, with 4,000 volunteers, had started in the direction of the main land.

Fifteen hundred men, with arms and tents, from Sardinia, had arrived at Naples, but were compelled to re-embark.

It is asserted that two companies of dragoons have joined the insurgents.

The Austrian Marine Budget is to be increased ten millions of florins.

The English cabinet agree to discontinue their negotiations for including Spain as one of the great powers of Europe.

Mexico.

Intelligence from Vera Cruz, received at New Orleans, informs us that the Liberals had invested the City of Mexico—the centre of Miramon's influence—with an immense army, and commenced operations, with every prospect of capturing the place.

Miramont was encamped with 2,000 men, 25 miles from the city, but was unable to send aid, and the general impression was that he could not hold out much longer. The crops in the grain region were scarce, and what little grain there was in the country was being seized by the foreign troops. In consequence of this, a famine, accompanied by much suffering, was apprehended. The U. S. Government has ordered a large fleet of war vessels to the Gulf of Mexico to prevent, it is said, the interference of Spain in the quarrel.

REMOVAL.

The Publication Office of the DAILY BRITISH COLONIST has been removed from Wharf street, to the new Brick Building, on Government street second door south of the Post Office, up stairs, where all orders for Advertising, Job Work, etc., must in future be left.

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 3, 1860.

The Bogus Executive.

When the question was taken in the Assembly last Friday, to go into committee to provide the ways and means for Esquimalt road, that is to be, the Speaker denied to Mr. Gordon the right to make any such motion, except with the consent of the Executive. We therefore put the question to our readers, one and all, "Is not our Assembly a very submissive body indeed, when it can only act upon the dictum of the Executive?" We have all along held it to be sadly deficient in independence; but here is proof—and we believe strong proof to any one possessed of common sense, that the Obstructives have inaugurated the principle that the Assembly must abjectly submit to Executive dictation or do nothing. Is not such degradation adverse to every feeling of manliness and independence? Does it not reduce the representatives of the people to mere serfs? Why, we ask, is the farce repeated over and over, at the opening of every new legislature, of reading a bill a first time to show the right of the Assembly to legislate independently, if the Executive dictum is necessary? Yet such is done; the Executive guarantees all their rights, as a separate and independent body, to legislate as they please, and still for all this a money bill cannot be originated without the Executive dictum. We might just as well request our representatives to resign, if they were to do only as they were told by others, and not as their constituents direct. Who is there who voted for a member that concurs with the Speaker? No one; because the right to legislate independently of the crown is a fundamental principle of our constitution; and the sole right of the Assembly to originate money bills is a staunch bulwark of our freedom, guaranteed anew by Labouchere's dispatch authorizing the convocation of the first Assembly of this colony. Had we an Executive Council here—a ministry—to whom were reserved the right to initiate all money votes, then we might understand the Speaker's position. But we have no such thing. True, we have a quasi Executive. For instance (we quote from the report), Mr. Cary stated, in reply to the Speaker's remark, "he was perfectly willing to allow the House to go into committee on the subject." Are not representative institutions a perfect farce? Mr. Cary will allow the House to go into committee! Verily, from the Speaker's reply to Mr. Coles, we might judge that Governor Douglas was chief dictator to the Assembly, and Mr. Cary deputy dictator. Here is the reply (we quote the report again): "The Speaker replied that Mr. Cary represented the Executive in the House, and his sanction was sufficient." We are thus so far enlightened as to understand that Mr. Cary represents Governor Douglas. We always thought so. His political maneuvering proved as much long ago. But how can he serve two masters? Either he will love the one, despise the other, or deceive both. He was elected by the Victoria constituency first. If he represents Gov. Douglas in the House, he must have been elected to the post of Gov. Douglas' representative since. On referring back to learn when he assumed the latter position, we find that a message was sent to the Assembly by the Executive on the 25th April, announcing that Mr. Cary had been appointed to explain the Estimates. No new light since has been thrown on the appointment of the Estimate Minister, till Friday last, and then we find the powers of Gov. Douglas' representative considerably enlarged. Even Mr. Gordon, who wears the Obstructive livery, appeared to be in ignorance of such power before.

The question, however, as to whether Mr. Cary is or is not Gov. Douglas' minister, having once more come on the tapis, we are not disposed to allow it to silently pass by. Were it simply confined to the minister himself it would be too insignificant to merit notice. But it is a very important question for public consideration, whether the law shall be carried out or not. Whether the Governor shall be permitted to ally himself with a prominent member of the Legislature to set law at defiance. It is then to secure the administration of the law that we ask why Mr. Cary, in accepting the appointment of representative of the Executive in the Assembly, did not resign, and ask his constituents to re-elect him?

The Franchise Act, 1859, is clear on the subject, that no member of the House can accept an appointment, even if it were only one of honor without emolument, and then remain there without re-election. The mere fact of having done so, renders his seat vacant. In Mr. Cary's case, he is bound to resign. Otherwise the Assembly allows a person, who is not a member, to speak and vote. Such we believe to be actually the case, so far as we can understand and interpret the statute law of the land; and for that reason we cannot recognize Gov. Douglas' representative other than as a bogus Executive.

THE DAILY OVERLAND MAIL.—The first of the Daily Overland Mails from Sacramento, Cal., to Olympia, W. T., reached the latter place, on Sunday last, in eleven days. Letters from San Francisco were received at Olympia to the 19th ult., but the papers brought were only to the 15th ult.—seven days later than those brought by the Cortes. The schedule time from Sacramento to Portland, as set by law, is as follows: Seven days from April 1st to December 1st, and twelve days the remainder of the year. Thirty-six hours is given the mail to arrive at Olympia from Portland throughout the year; and the postmaster is directed to discontinue the ocean service from San Francisco to Olympia via Portland and Astoria, Oregon, so soon as the service contemplated by the act is established.

THE PRINCE OF WALES AT MONTREAL.—The Prince of Wales arrived at Montreal Aug. 23d. He was most enthusiastically received by the crowds that filled the streets. The town was illuminated, the stores closed, and a general holiday given. The Exhibition Building was opened on the 25th with great eclat, after which the Prince proceeded to lay the corner stone of the Victoria Bridge. A considerable number of invited guests witnessed the ceremony. The Prince was entertained at luncheon in the Grand Trunk Building, and then returned to the house of the commander of the forces, where he will remain during his stay in the city. The weather was rather unfavorable.

EXPLORERS.—The schooner Langley left our harbor on Monday afternoon, for an exploring expedition to the Northwest Coast. She is manned by a crew of six men, whose purpose it is to thoroughly explore the coast for precious metals as far as Sitka. She is fitted up with two 3-pounders and a year's provisions, and the leader of the party is the celebrated "Sebastopol," a Russian, well known as a successful prospector on Fraser River. We shall hear from the party from time to time, as their explorations progress.

A WONDERFUL BARRISTER.—He filed a bill, shaved a note, cut an acquaintance, split a hair, made an entry, got up a case, framed a plea, put twelve men in a panel, fixed them in box, hammered a witness, screwed his client, riveted the Judge, and bored the hearers—all in one day—and is about to turn carpenter and cut his stick.

THE RIVER STEAMERS.—The steamer Otter left for New Westminster, about seven o'clock last evening. She carried up fifty tons of freight and a few passengers. The Wilson G. Hunt left at eight o'clock, for the same destination. She had on board 75 tons of freight and 20 passengers.

THE ROBINSON FAMILY.—Were still at Steilacoom at last accounts. They performed to a crowded house on Saturday and Monday evenings last. The troupe, we are sorry to say, are undecided as to their future course.

LATE PAPERS.—Mr. Moody, of the Victoria News Depot, Government street, has laid upon our table late papers received by the Overland Mail—London Punch, Harper's Magazine, and other publications—for which he has our thanks.

DEFULTING JURORS FINED.—Yesterday morning four jurors, summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of David Smith the night previous, failed to answer to their names. They were fined £1 each by coroner Dickson.

SENT UP.—John Kelly, for raising a row in the Chimsean lodges on Saturday night, and for having a bad character generally, was sent for trial to the Court of Sessions.

THE MAIL STEAMER.—The Brother Jonathan was announced to leave San Francisco on the 26th ult., and will be here to-day or to-morrow.

Messrs. Hibben & Carswell, Stationers' Hall, have laid us under obligations for late New York, California and European papers received per Overland Mail.

The steamer Caledonia is looked for today at noon, with later mining news.

The steamer Caledonia is looked for today at noon, with later mining news.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Yesterday morning, David Smith, employed on the steamer Otter, was found dead in his bunk, on board that vessel. Deceased had been intoxicated the night before, and it is said got into a difficulty with a man who struck him several blows with his fist. He was finally taken in charge by a person, who led him down towards the steamer, to put him to bed. On his way thither, he fell from the grasp of his companion, upon his face with great violence, and was picked up insensible. In this condition he was put to bed, and in the morning was found lifeless. Whether death resulted from the effects of the alleged blows or fall, or from the too free use of ardent spirits, will be determined by Coroner Dickson, and a competent jury. A partial investigation was had yesterday, and adjourned until ten o'clock this morning.

AMONG NEIGHBORS.—A. Blackman, stove-dealer, Yates street, complained of Joseph M. Robinson, assayer, his next-door-neighbor, for having assaulted him on Monday. The quarrel arose from the fact that a pipe leading from the furnace of the assay office had become defective, and Blackman went on to the roof of the building to put a new piece over it. Robinson went up and ordered him off. B. refused to go and a fight resulted, in which they were both badly scratched about the face. Yesterday morning the case was heard in the Police Court. D. B. Ring, Esq., appeared for the defendant, and entered a counter-charge of assault against Blackman. After a patient investigation, Judge Pemberton fined both parties fifty shillings.

NE EXEAT.—George E. Nias, late proprietor of the Gazette, was taken to prison last night by virtue of a writ of ne exeat, issued on complaint of parties who allege that he is indebted to them in the amount of $1100. Nias was taken into custody by the little deputy; and after a vain search for security, was committed to jail.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—The Board of Delegates of the Victoria Fire Department met last evening, to revise the returns made by the judges of the late election. Owing to some omission in the tally list, the Board adjourned without coming to any decision in the matter.

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

9 Wharf Street, Victoria,

From the Sound.

By the arrival of the steamer Eliza Anderson, Captain Fleming has laid us under obligation for copies of the Steilacoom Herald and P. T. Northwest:

CONVICTION AND SENTENCE.—Monaghan, for maiming the unfortunate McCarthy, by biting off his nose, was convicted before the District Court, on Saturday night last, and sentenced to three years and five days hard labor in the Penitentiary. Gardiner, for subsequently killing McCarthy, by deliberately shooting him several times with a revolver, was sentenced to eighteen years hard labor in the penitentiary. The jury, in the latter case, were out two nights before rendering a verdict.—Herald.

THE CAPITOL INJUNCTION CASE.—The application of Geo. Gallagher, Esq., for an injunction to restrain Mr. Walker from acting as Capitol Commissioner, as is well-known, has been denied.—Ib.

The Herald says there is a fine opening for a good physician at Steilacoom.

Captain Fleming, of the Eliza Anderson, informs us that an Indian brought to Olympia, on Friday last, a piece of gold-bearing which appeared very rich. Captain Mason, of the U. S. revenue cutter Jeff. Davis, started out the next day on a hunt for the vein.

Affairs in Syria.

The Syrian correspondent of the Boston Traveler writes an interesting letter from Beyroot, under date of July 19th, giving, from an American source, a complete history of the late occurrences in Syria. The writer confirms the previous announcements that Jerusalem was in great danger from the wild desert tribes, and adds that the missionaries there had left for Jaffa. From this letter we quote the following:

The arrival last week of several Turkish frigates and line-of-battle ships, together with the heart-rending news from Damascus, already communicated, threw the deepest gloom over Beyroot. The fanaticism of the Moslem population was fanned into a flame when the news of the cold-blooded massacre of 5,000 Christians in the streets of Damascus arrived, and the preponderance of the Turkish naval forces over the foreign fleets, greatly encouraged the fanatics here, who confidently believe that the Ottoman government will sustain them in all their excesses. This gloom and despondency among the Christians increased as the details of the massacre at Damascus were brought in, and the families of the European merchants, together with thousands of the Christian population, fled to the nearest available ports of safety. The streets of Beyroot were almost deserted, and the town became as silent as a graveyard.

The mists of dread and gloom were somewhat dissipated, however, a few days ago, by the timely arrival of two immense French line-of-battle ships, the booming of whose guns gave joy to the disheartened Christians, and at the same time uttered a warning voice to those who thirsted for Christian blood.

The French, English and Greek fleets were now in the majority, and more confidence was felt by the consuls, whose countenances are closely watched by all foreigners, for the signal of departure from Syria. Every trunk is packed ready to embark at a moment's notice, whenever their respective consuls shall bid them to go. Business ceased long ago, and all shopping is at an end for the present.

Yesterdays the hills of Lebanon echoed back the salutes from another large detachment of the Turkish fleet, four war steamers having arrived from Constantinople with troops. But this time the Turkish vessels of war had a contrary effect. Instead of creating doubt and direful uncertainty, they did more towards inspiring confidence than anything else. The cause of this change of feeling is found in the fact that they brought Faad Pasha, minister for foreign affairs, from Constantinople, together with the highest military officer, to conduct an investigation into the conduct of the government officials here, with full discretionary powers.

There were no American citizens in Damascus at the time of the massacre. Mr. Crawford and family are living in the village of Yebrood, some ten hours distant from the city, and occupied a house jointly with a Moslem Sheikh. This fact in itself will secure his protection. Singular as it may seem, a Moslem will lose his life sooner than allow the guest in his house to be molested. Thousands of Christians were saved in this way in Damascus, and it is currently reported that several Moslems lost their lives in defending the Christians who had taken refuge in their houses. Forty Moslem houses were burned during the insurrection, whether by accident or revenge for private wrongs, is not known.

The Christian quarter of Damascus became a complete ruin strewed with corpses, besides those who met their death precipitated into wells, and flames of the burning houses, as many who could not find a place of escape hid themselves in wells, cellars and other places, and who, being starved and faint, after remaining there two or three days, came out, but were met by their enemies, who either stoned them or threw them back into the flames.
